

Second Meeting of the Network of World and Global History Organizations (NOGWHISTO) at the XXI International Congress of Historical Sciences

Amsterdam (Netherlands)
Sunday, 22 August & Wednesday, 25 August 2010

PROGRAMM

..... SUNDAY, 22 AUGUST 2010

Venue: Goethe Institut Netherlands, Grachtensaal (Amsterdam, Herengracht 470)

12.00 am – 2.00 pm Business Meeting NOGWHISTO

2.30 – 4.00 pm Round Table: Teaching World and Global History:
Approaches, Forms of Institutionalization and Potentials of International Collaboration

Chair: Adapa Satyanarayana (Osmania University, Hyderabad)

Participants: Abdouraman Halirou (Université de Ngaoundéré)
Alfred Andrea (University of Vermont)
Armando Garcia (University of the West Indies, St. Augustine)
Steffi Marung (GWZO at the University of Leipzig)
Zhang Weiwei (Nankai University Tianjin)

..... WEDNESDAY, 25 AUGUST 2010

Venue: University of Amsterdam, OMHP, room C 1.17

9.00 – 12.00 am Research Perspective in World and Global History (I)

Chair: Ji-Hyung Cho (Ewha Womans University)
David Christian (Macquarie University Sydney) / Fred Spier (University of Amsterdam):
Big History
Patrick Manning (University of Pittsburgh): Migration
Gareth Austin (London School of Economics) / Shigeru Akita (Osaka University):
The Making of a Genuinely Global Economic Historiography?
Ahmed Abushouk (International Islamic University Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur):
World Orders in Global History

2.00 – 5.00 pm Research Perspective in World and Global History (II)

Matthias Middell (University of Leipzig) / David Simo (Université de Yaoundé):
The Place of Culture in Global History

2.00 – 3.30 pm Round Table: Regional Perspectives on Research in World and Global History

Chair: Luis Jáuregui (Instituto José Luis M. Mora, Mexico, DF)

Participants: Katja Naumann (GWZO at the University of Leipzig)
Alejandra Irigoin (London School of Economics)
Leslie Witz (University of the Western Cape)
Shingo Minamizuka (Hosei University Tokyo)